20TH MARCH 2010:

DECO DESIGN IN PARIS

SPECIAL ISSUE

POINT DE VUE

Christophe Pillet

In this special issue, Images du Monde takes us on a journey from some of the most beautiful examples of historical architecture in Paris through to the work of ground-breaking designers and architects today, all presented in Images du Monde's unmistakably rich style, on perfectly bound, glossy pages.

This celebration of Parisian decoration and design will include:

❖ From Henri IV to Jean Nouvel, a look-back at 400 years of the rich architectural and design history of this stunning city...and an interview with the ground-breaking contemporary architect Jean Nouvel on Paris in the 21st Century...

❖ An interview with exciting young talent Ara Starck, daughter of Philippe Starck and the painter behind the large ceiling tapestry at Paris' famous 'Le Dali' restaurant...

❖ Christophe Pillet, creator of furniture and interior designer and scenographer for the likes of Lacoste, Shu Uemura and Malandrino opens the doors to his Parisian apartment...
